
RANDOM REFERENCES.

Ben Rich came in from the north and went south last night.

The Second ward choir meets for rehearsal tonight.

H. S. Goddard of Salt Lake was an Ogden visitor yesterday.

Attorney General Bishop was up from Salt Lake yesterday.

Fred Clark was a Salt Lake visitor last night.

G. W. Wilder, a prominent Denver mining man, was in the city yesterday.

Prosecuting Attorney Williams of Morgan county was in the city yesterday.

Hon. David Evans will address the Washakie club members next Friday evening.

Capt. Sam O'Donnell, agent of the Pacific Insurance Union, was up from Salt Lake yesterday.

General Manager Dickinson and Traffic Manager Munroe of the Union Pacific will be in the city today.

John Sparks, the Nevada cattle king, passed through today from Boise, Idaho, where he has been exhibiting his fine cattle.

Frank Crawford, who was arrested Tuesday night for disturbing the peace, was discharged yesterday, Mr. I. L. Clark, the complaining witness, withdrawing the complaint.

Head Consul Falkenberg of the Woodmen of the World delivered a lecture before the society on the principles and beliefs of the order.

The Republicans have opened their headquarters over the offices of the Bear River Irrigation and Ogden Water Works company at 2469 Washington avenue.

Guy Lindsley, who was quite a favorite actor with Ogden and who has appeared here with Warde and James, a number of times, is running a Dramatic school in St. Louis.

Tuesday night a horse and colt belonging to Orson Alford were struck by a street car in charge of Motorman Herreck, near Tenth street, Washington avenue, and killed. The driver of the team endeavored to cross directly in front of the car, and thus the accident.

Through business is reported by the railroads as being about one-third better than for the same period of last year. Every road is rushing its business and the men and rolling stock are kept busy at all hours.

The Southern Pacific officers, including General Manager Kruttschnitt and a number of others, came in at 6 o'clock yesterday morning and departed for the west at 8 o'clock after an inspection of S. P. offices and property here. Supt. Agler and Asst. Supt. Fitzgerald accompanied them on west.

W. A. Lee of Salt Lake City was in the city yesterday and states that his wife is convalescing slowly, but has not entirely recovered from the effects of the accident she met with through a runaway.

Deputy Clerk Samuel T. Myers issued a marriage license yesterday to Frank Crawford, aged 27, and Miss Ollie Vail, aged 20, both of Ogden.

Heber Scowcroft has been elected second counsellor to the president of the Y. M. M. I. A. of the Second ward, vice W. Rolle Emmett, absent on a mission.

Fred Bluth has returned from San Francisco, where he has been working for the Western Union Telegraph company during the recent war.