

PERSONALS.

---

Apostle Heber J. Grant was in Ogden today.

M. Skeen returned from Boise this morning.

Richard Williams went down to the lake today with the cambrian society.

Mr. Chas. Bell of Alvarado, Cal., is a new employe of the Ogden sugar factory.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tellinghast of Boulder, Mont., are visiting in the city.

Burt Hayward, of Elko, scheduled as drunk, forfeited $5 to the police court this morning.

Laura Johnson who died suddenly on the streets of Salt Lake yesterday was well known to the demi-monde of Ogden as Mattie Dawson.

Mrs. W. R. White returned yesterday from a month's visit to her sister at Los Angeles. Her mother remained in Los Angeles and will return late in the fall.

Mrs. A. T. Wright and family went north on this morning's Cache Valley train for a visit in Richmond.

E. S. Rolapp, Wm. Allison, T. J. Kertz, Willard Kay and J. M. L. Bluth were passengers to Salt Lake today.

John L. Edwards, mayor of Willard, was among the cambrians who celebrated at Saltair today.

---