George Cline Now on Trial for Grand Larceny—Stole Horse and Buggy.

In the Second District court before Judge Rolapp, this morning, Glen Patterson, an incorrigible, sent over by the police department, was committed to the State Industrial school.

The case of George Cline, charged with grand larceny, which was the stealing of a horse and buggy, came up regularly for hearing. The following jury was empaneled: L. C. Shurtliff, P. M. Gorkman, T. B. Evans, Chas. F. Wade, James Gale, P. Healy, L. N. Meld and J. V. Bluth. Several witnesses were examined and the case was still on when this report closed.

In case of Ida C. Fehrlinger vs. R. T. Hume, administrator of estate of S. P. Ash, and Commercial National bank, judgment was handed down this morning for defendant, and the case was dismissed.

In case of Ladd vs. Citizen's bank, judgment was entered for Jennie E.
Whipple, intervenor, in the sum of $482.
