

SECRET MARRIAGE.

That Miss Barbara Torgerson and G. J. Bluth are husband and wife has just become known to their acquaintances, despite the fact that they were married on the seventeenth of this month. The desire of the young couple was to keep the event secret and in this they succeeded until today, when it was learned that the nuptials of these well known people had been performed at Farmington on the above mentioned date.

The bride, a winsome young lady, has been clerking in the Z.C.M.I. while the groom is the well-known baseball player and a great favorite with the young folks.

Ogden is to be their home and to them is extended the heartfelt wishes for success of their countless friends.

④ ④ ④ ④