

OGDEN LOSES

EXHIBITION GAME AT LAGOON WON BY THE FARMERS.

The exhibition game between the Ogdens and Lagoons was won by the latter team at the Lagoon yesterday. Kostal who pitched the first three innings for the Lagoons was injured and succeeded by Newmeyer. Bluth did not go down and Evans. Ogden's new pitcher played right field. Hansford pitched for Ogdens.

BASEBALL NOTES.

Upon account of the absence of City Recorder John V. Bluth, Fred Bluth will not be able to go to Salt Lake today, and Hansford will play right field for Ogdens while Borchers will pitch. Bluth will play in both of Sunday's games, however.

Today's game between Ogdens and Salt Lakes at Salt Lake will definitely settle the ownership of the pennant if Ogden wins.

Pendergraft, who umpired the exhibition game at the Lagoon yesterday, left today for Omaha. Pendergraft was one of the most popular pitchers in this league and his friends were sorry to see him go. He pitched here last year for the Rio Grandes and started this season with the Park Citys, remaining with the miners until that outfit stampeded. He was then signed by Ogden and remained here until last Tuesday, when he was handed his release.
