

OGDEN 20 YEARS AGO

From Our Files

Strike of brewery workers in St. Louis has already curtailed the output of beer. When George K. Busch, cousin of the famous brewer, appeared at the Anheuser-Busch plant he was given a shovel and ordered to keep the boilers hot.

Advertising has become so heavy in The Standard that the newspaper had to reject 207 inches yesterday. The rate is to be raised from 16 to 20 cents an inch when present contract expires.

Harry C. True, clerk for the Southern Pacific, has accepted a position as transportation and record clerk in the office of Superintendent Manson in Salt Lake. Fred Bluth will succeed him here.

People of Cheyenne, Wyo., are beginning to advertise their frontier celebration which is to be held July 25, 26 and 27.

A writer for The Standard comments that fully 20,000 visitors are expected to attend conference in Salt Lake next week.

Conductor F. W. Billings of the Southern Pacific was painfully injured at Moor station when struck by an engine and knocked to the ground.

Gun play over a card game in the Assembly club caused the arrest of two young men last night.

The new plant of the Clearfield Canning company will be ready to pack fruits and vegetables this year. Officers of the company are Thomas Steed, president; Joseph F. Maley, vice president, and Hyrum Stewart, secretary-treasurer.

S. Akamoo, a Japanese, was fined $25 in the city court this morning for resisting arrest by Officer Fred Tout.