

Brevities.

United States Marshal Glen Miller is in Ogden for a few days on court business.

Mr. Will Sturtevant left yesterday for St. Louis to attend the Washington college.

Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii passed through Ogden yesterday morning, traveling very quietly.

Register Byron Groo of the United States Land office is in Ogden, a witness in the ejectment cases now being tried in the United States District court.

Messrs. J. F. Graham and Fred Bluth left yesterday for San Francisco, where they go in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph company as Wheatstone operators.

The trial of the complaint filed against Mrs. Relchter by Rev. W. E. Malson for the larceny of pictures, which was to have been heard yesterday, was postponed until Monday.

The Board of Police and Fire Commissioners met last night in regular session, but outside of approving the pay-rolls and a few miscellaneous bills did no business of any importance.

Judge Ternes yesterday received a letter from H. B. Deyer of Portland, Or., inquiring about the death of Farrell, the San Francisco newspaper man who suicided in Ogden last week. Deyer is the man who, it is reported, had eloped with Mary Lansing, the woman with whom Farrell appeared infatuated. It appears from the letter that Deyer has been appointed administrator of the estate of Farrell.
